The Bear in Mr. Punch's Menageric. BY THE KEEPER.

There he is, ladies and gentlemen! Let me direct your attention to that gigantic and bulky kevodruped, the Rooshan Bear. This hinterestin' but illlookin' speciment of Natural Istory is, as his name implies, an inhabitant of the North of Europe: in which dominions the Lion bein unknown, he is looked upon by the unhappy and ignorant natives as the King of Beasts. In disposition, howsomdever, he by no means, resembles the generosity and magnanimity of that noble hanimal; his natur' partakin' of the craft and cunnin' of the iox, the malice of the hape or haboon, and the fierceness and woracity of the larfin' iena. The hanimal now before you, ladies and gentlemen is well known. He is better known than trusted. Bears in general is treacherous hanimals; but more particular that there individile of the genius .-He keeps his eye upon his prey for years together; awaitin' his hopportunity an undered times patienter and slier than a cat watchin a mouse. In the meanwhile he conceals carniverous propensities with so much art as to impose upon and deceive the closest hobserver; whereby experienced judges have been led into the mistake of supposin' of him to be a wegetable feeder. In consequence of the hinsidjus character of the Rooshan Bear I ope ladies and gentlemen will excuse me from wenturin' on the dangerous attempt of henterin' his den. This azardous and foolardy experiment has been tried by three Quakers, who is said to have went in and shook im by the por; but I ave not yet eerd whether they've come

The Rooshan Bear is notorious for his cruelty and windictiveness to the human specie; and 'specially o the female sect, in which barbarity he exceeds the Howrang Howtang. The story of the unfortunit Nuns of Minsk, whose back was so cruelly lacerated by this onmerciful brute is too familiar to inspire

The diet of the Rooshan Bear consists mostly of the witals of the nation, or innards, which he is purwided with under the influence of fear by the Rooshan serfs, to satisfy his mawr. Peraps you'll be of opionion that them as demeans themselves to carry im is wisera, is a sort of creechurs that ain't fit for no better employment. The temper of the Rooshan Bear is usually morose and sullen, interrupted with fits of rage and frenzy; when he goes down on his marrow-bones and turns his eyes up into his 'ed growlin' meanwhile and showin' his teeth in a manner orrible to witness and painful to relate. Of late this hanimal has grown so furious that we have resolved to chain and muzzle him, which, though a service of danger and difficulty. we shall endeavor to accomplish hundeterred by peril and regardless of expense.

I shall now, ladies and gentlemen, proceed to exhibit some highdear of this hanimal's ferocity, by means of stirrin' him up with a long Pole; a Pole in his flank bein', as you will observe, a sort of thing as renders him particklarly cantankerus.
